Cabal DID from Torture Programming

DID (Dissociative Identity Disorder) torture programming is the backbone of the dark hierarchy in the time-space universes. satan, the demonic realm, negative alien species, and the cabal on this planet all use trauma and fear behavioral programming to establish their hierarchical structure.

Exposing cabal DID is exposing the core of evil on this planet. It explains the psychology of the cabal. While there are many in the cabal who freely submit to and perpetuate this system, there are also many who are breaking their programming in whatever way they are able. There are many advanced lightworker-starseeds and righteous souls who have infiltrated the cabal for God and the Light forces. They are on a mission to learn about the mechanisms of evil to then defect from and expose the system.

DID is how the cabal program themselves as agents of darkness to infiltrate and covertly try to devitalize the righteous human society. They believe themselves to be wolves in sheep's clothing. They behaviorally program their back alters to serve and live in the cabal society while their front alters are programmed to infiltrate and live in the mainstream society. For example, Svali (svalispeaksagain.wordpress.com) was a jesuit who infiltrated the Illuminati and then had several front alters in different Western countries.

Cabal DID torture programing is accurately depicted in Mockingjay in the torture programming done to Peeta; just replace Katniss Everdeen with God and Peeta Mellark with a cabal member.

When public awareness about DID torture programming is raised it encourages cabal defection. It allows for the public to understand that the cabal are acting out of trauma. It is important to never condone the perpetuation of evil, but we also must have compassion and understanding for cabal members who are fighting their programming and defecting.

It is the ultimate heroism to return to the Light after having travelled into the depths of darkness. Here are characters in media who represent righteous cabal defection:

"Chloe agrees that everyone in hell deserves a chance to get redemption. Lucifer admits he knows what it's like to fall and rise. Lucifer laughs, realizing what his 'cheeky bastard' dad had planned all along. God said that Lucifer would figure it out and now he has. The reason he said hell no longer needs a keeper is because it now needs a healer. Lucifer realizes that this is his calling; Hell was truly meant as a 'tough love' facility like rehab and not eternal torment."

The story of Saint Christopher is important because it represents the core sentiment of the cabal. The cabal support evil (anti-life) because they do not yet understand that Jesus Christ is more powerful than satan:
